DAYLIGHT DIES

Slowly we watch the degradation of a civilization. The rise and fall of all we are stands before us. This place is evil. Is there an answer?

This world is vile. We are the answer? How long until we die? Die from the inside out. How much is enough for us to see the light? How much blood must be spilled?

Contest the lies, we cannot be so blind. Hear their cries. Don't wait 'til daylight dies. When there is blood on our hands. How can we ignore the truth. Contest the lies. We cannot be so blind.

Hear their cries, don't wait 'til daylight dies. The cost of one life the price of one soul is too much to bear. No more broken promises, our shattered hearts will heal. No more broken promises.

No more. Contest the lies. We cannot be so blind. Hear their cries, don't wait 'til daylight dies. How long until it dies? How long?

THIS IS ABSOLUTION

We must not die this way. In unification they cannot break these chains of faith. Let them do their worst. Never slaves to iniquity. We will not die this way. This is absolution.

Death claims us no more. Do not grieve. End the suffering. We will live, live eternal. Will you take this stance among the dead? Bury your fear and hold fast to life. We will not die this way.

This is absolution. Death claims us no more. Do not grieve. End the suffering. We will live, live eternal. Anchor yourself to the foundation of everything you are. Believe you have just begun to live.

Don't let the world deceive you. Don't let their words betray you. Don't let their lies deceive you. Let them do their worst. We will not die this way. This is absolution.

Death claims us no more. Do not grieve. End the suffering. We will live, live eternal.

THE ARMS OF SORROW

Imprisoned inside this mind. Hiding behind the empty smiles. So simple, the anguish, as it mocks me. Crawling back into the dark. Running, always running into the distance. Stop me before

I bleed again. The echoes of my voice follow me down. The shadows I cast follow me down. Deeper, I'm falling into the arms of sorrow. Blindly descending into the arms of sorrow.

There must be serenity. The echoes of my voice follow me down. The shadows I cast follow me down. Deeper, I'm falling into the arms of sorrow. Blindly descending into the arms of sorrow.

There must be serenity. There must be deliverance. The demon of my own design. This horror must not remain. Tear these walls down.

UNBROKEN

Forever falling into oblivion. The darkness crawls forward and engulfs my will to live. Fear is failure and this is my motivation. Take back what is stolen. Reclaim all that is lost.

With virtue I will rise up from the ruins. Through adversity there is redemption. With passion fighting, I am unbroken. Through adversity there is redemption. With passion fighting,

I am unbroken. Take back what is stolen. Embrace the struggle. Refuse to turn back now and be led astray. Fear is failure and this is my affirmation. Through adversity there is redemption.

With passion fighting, I am unbroken. Through adversity there is redemption. With passion fighting, I am unbroken. The absence of fear is the renewal of self.

The absence of doubt breeds desire. If there is truth to fate I will design it. I will not be denied.

MY CURSE

I watched you walk away. Helpless, with nothing to say. I strain my eyes hoping to see you again. This is my curse-the longing. This is my curse-time. This is my curse-the yearning.

This is my curse. There is love burning to find you. Will you wait for me? Will you be there? Your silence haunts me. But still I hunger for you.

This is my curse-the wanting. This is my curse-time. This is my curse-the needing. This is my curse. There is love burning to find you will you wait for me. And still I want. And still I ache.

But still I wait. To see you again. Dying inside these walls. And I see your face in these tears, in these tears. And I see your face. There is love.

FOR YOU

The finest parts of me are only shades of you. To put aside the ties that bind is the goal of man. I give my word to stand the test of time. No more wasted days. The past must perish.

The line is drawn. I pledge my devotion. There is no turning back. This heart is yours. I sacrifice for you. For you, for you. This is immortal.

The finest parts of me are only shades of you. With each passing day this heart is endless. No more wasted time. We are immortal. The line is drawn. I pledge my devotion.

There is no turning back. This heart is yours I sacrifice for you. For you, for you. This is the everlasting. This is immortal. Your words are my inspiration. Your life, an image of perfection.

For all you are. For all you've done. I strive to be in your reflection. The line is drawn. I pledge my devotion.

STILL BEATS YOUR NAME

Who knows how long I've been lost in the dark. Followed closely by the footsteps of my failures. What can I do to alter my perception of the way and the truth? Let this burden drift away.

Who knows how long the void has swallowed me. I only wish for nothing more than peace to find me. How can this be? We've come so far to let the weight destroy our grand design.

Let this burden drift away. My pledge remains faithful to you. And my heart still beats your name. Drowning once again. Will I live another day? To reach the surface.

Let this burden drift away. Drowning. Choking. Fading. Life. Is this the moment where I leave the blackness? Is this the moment of my rebirth? Who knows how long I've been lost in the dark.

Followed closely by the footsteps of my failures. What can I do to alter my perception of the way and the truth. Drowning once again. Will I live another day? To reach the surface.

Let this burden drift away. Drowning again. Reach the surface. Let it drift away.

EYE OF THE STORM

As time goes by nothing has changed. I won't stand and watch you wither away. After all this time I stand by you. Through all of the years I've been with you. Through pain and affliction, with every addiction. I will never let you down. I will live by this code: Never Surrender. You and I are one. Through the eye of the storm. You are never alone.

Even through the shadows. You are never alone. After all this time still you struggle. Even words of love ring so hollow. I have no regrets.

I have no remorse and if you falter, I won't let you down. Through the eye of the storm. You are never alone. Even through the shadows. You are never alone. Together we stand.

Never fall. No matter the trial, we will overcome. We will overcome.

BREAK THE SILENCE

As I live and breathe. I'm watching, watching a world die. We greet this with apathy. No longer consumed by self. We walk through each day with no mind to deprivation and moral decay.

We must destroy and rebuild. We must destroy and rebuild for the sake of all. It starts with one. As I live and breathe.

I'm watching, watching a world die. We greet this with apathy. No longer consumed by self. If we can't break the silence. How can we survive? Search inside yourself. Know that your alive.

We must break the silence, now we are alive. Silent no longer. Make this world take notice that change is in our hands. The battle has just begun, we are not defeated.

If we can't break the silence. How can we survive? Search inside yourself. Know that your alive. We must break the silence, now we are alive. Silent no longer. With all that I am. I will lift my voice to start this revolution. It starts today and it starts with me. Silent no longer. With all I am. I will lift my voice. With all I am. It starts with me. Break the silence, we are alive.

DESPERATE TIMES

Time and time again I stand at the crossroad. Where the weight of my burden eclipses my resolve. This broken path I've chosen, I walk it alone. Though I feel forgotten.

You've carved my name in stone. In these desperate times. This I plead. When all else fails remember me. This is daily crucifixion and these rusty nails leave scars. My jagged crown is at my side.

Anguish is never far. In these desperate times. This I plead. When all else fails remember me. This is a blood-oath. They are nothing to me anymore. But your voice means more to me than you'll ever know. There's no question, you're the answer. I will find you. In these desperate times. This I plead. When all else fails remember me.

REJECT YOURSELF

Their cries are blown away with the wind. How passive can we be before humanity is lost. Turning our backs on those who need love. We must not rest while healing is needed.

Tear down the veil that bars your heart from feeling this. Dedicate yourself. Give your souls to compassion. With open arms embrace this heart. With open eyes behold the truth.

Embrace this life. So little time is left. We must be relentless in our pursuit of those in torment. Tear down the veil that bars your heart from feeling this.

Dedicate yourself. Become the voice of compassion. With open arms embrace this heart.

With open eyes behold the truth. Embrace this life. Can you reject yourself? Can you feel their agony? In a world that feeds on disregard. Heal the broken hearted.

BE ONE

With conviction you must stand your ground. Don't be deceived. Strength is salvation. It is so easy to live the life of a follower. We must kill the idols. Don't fall prey to seduction.

With single mindedness we must pursue the truth. Never more the victim. Let them see that we are not of their world. With the promise of life we are strong. We will carry on. Kill the idols.

No more disillusion. Let them say what they will. We answer to a higher calling. You can see by their hatred. Never more the victim. Let them see that we are not of their world.

With the promise of life we are strong. We will carry on. Be warned for your convictions. Be warned for your devotion. You will be hated. For your dedication you will be hated.

You will be hated. With the promise of life we are strong. We will carry on.

LET THE BRIDGES BURN

We have come too far to let our fulfillment fall away. I must refuse to renounce my integrity. We stand in defiance to their ethics.

Let the grief that they have inflicted serve as our call to arms. Are you ready? Are you willing to be the catalyst? We can no longer be indifferent. Restore this dying world. From misery we have turned away. Ignite the past. Let the bridges burn. My eyes watch the unholy be left in the distance. The division of our souls from our blasphemous tongues.

This is our atonement. From misery we have turned away. Ignite the past.

Let the bridges burn. From sorrow we have turned away to the past. Let the bridges burn. I have bled for the truth. There is no surrender. Move forward. Commit yourself. Destroy all lies.

From ashes to ashes, from dust to dust. From misery we have turned away. Ignite the past let the bridges burn. Let the bridges burn.

THIS FIRE

All I've ever wanted was destiny to be fulfilled, it is in my hands, I must not fail and I must not fall. Even through the darkest days this fire burns, always. This fire burns, always.

This is the proving ground as the heat begins to rise. Turn away from yesterday, tomorrow's in my eyes. Nevermore to be held down by the weights against me. Nevermore to be cast aside.

This day is mine. Even through the darkest days this fire burns, always. This fire burns, always. I will not be denied in this final hour. I will not be denied, this day is mine. This passion inside me is burning. Is burning. This passion inside me is burning. Is burning. Even through the darkest days this fire burns, always. This fire burns, always
