DEPARTURE
SONGS

Cold Front

Now you're so gone
And it's so wrong...
Did I know you?
I get lost without you.
Where did you belong?
Now you're all gone...

(Tonight) We Burn Like Stars That Never Die

We're all dreaming,
We're all dreaming,
We could die chasing this feeling...

We're all dreaming,
We're all dreaming,
We could die chasing this feeling...

Don't cry
The sky is in our eyes
Tonight we burn like stars that never die...
Let's go drive
And live like we're alive
Tonight we are the stars that never die...
One day our song will end
So now let's just pretend
Tonight we burn like stars that never die...
So don't cry
Heaven is in our eyes
Tonight we are the stars that never die...

Ten Thousand Years Won't Save Your Life

It takes so long for you to realize,
Ten thousand years won't save your life...

We're still dreaming,
We're still dreaming,
We're gonna die chasing this feeling...

We're still dreaming,
We're still dreaming,
We're gonna die chasing this feeling...

Don't cry
The sky is in our eyes
Tonight we burn like stars that never die...
Let's go drive
And live like we're alive
Tonight we are the stars that never die...
One day our song will end
So now let's just pretend
Tonight we burn like stars that never die...
So don't cry
Heaven is in our eyes
Tonight we are the stars that never die...
Tonight we burn like stars that never die...

Words You Said... I'll Never Forget You Now

The words you said,
I'll never forget them now...
You wished yourself dead,
I'll never forget you now...
You shivered and you bled,
You never figured it out...

I just want,
To hear you again...
I so long,
To feel you again...
I know now,
I'll never see you again...
I know now,
I'll never see you again...

(Let's Kiss) While All the Stars Are Falling Down

Let's kiss while all the stars are falling down
Tonight we live like no one is around
Forget the lies that we were told
Now is the only truth we know
Tonight we fly while the stars are falling down
We're falling down!
We're falling down!
Down...
Down...

Hiding But Nobody Missed You

How could I forget your smile?
(Secrets hidden in your eyes)
It's hard to imagine you now
(Lost in your feelings)
I go back every once in a while
(Drifting under endless sky)

You're crying, You keep crying...

You used to just sit and stare
(Seeing yourself so high)
Living--but you weren't really there
(You found no reason)
Then you vanished like the evening air
(Never even said goodbye)

You were dying, You were dying inside...

And now all the nights fade away
Fade away like you...
Fade away like you...
And now all the nights fade away
Fade away like you...
Fade away like you...
I'm watching the nights fade away
Fade away like you...
Fade away, just like you...
